Make Your Own Light and Power

Here is the complete Kohler Automatic Power and Light outfit. Note the simplicity of its construction, its clean-cut appearance, its sturdy build—note, above all, the entire absence of the usual bank of large glass battery cells. There are but three simple units in the Kohler system: its efficient four-cylinder, water-cooled motor; its dependable generator connected directly to the motor, and a small automobile-type battery for starting the motor.

their winning streak. It will be no cinch for them as the Farmers are in third place and haven't lost a game since they lost to the Makees in the second game of the second round. Casey Ahana seems to have regained his old time form and somehow seems to be able to make the old horseshoe stick around. It seems to be seen however, whether Casey can again best "Flat."

Charles Fern's statement last week that the optimists at McBryde were clamoring for their team to give Tilly one run "to win" should have been printed without the words "to win." Like the soothsayers or oracles, we used to study about when ancient history was being inscribed into our craniums. Charlie should have protected himself and worded his prediction so that it could be interpreted both ways. He could then have truthfully claimed that what he actually meant was that McBryde needed one more run to make a coat of line and not "to win."

W. F. Sanborn donned the iron mask and protector on Sunday and helped to umpire the most important game of the season, David Kam Jopli of Elele officiated on the bases and both umpired in big league style.

The Makees had been under the impression that they not only possessed the championship, but also the biggest bailplayer on Kauai in the person of Joaquin "Babe" Pereira but had to bow low on Sunday when Tilly trotted out a newcomer by the name of Brenham in right field. This bird, although he fanned twice in as many times up, made a hard running off hand catch, and so far as size is concerned, Joaquin will have to take a back seat, for this season at least.

Tilly had speed to burn in the first six innings, but seemed to be tired after the 7th, when their best chance to score failed. He made a valiant effort in the 9th to save a shutout, but Cummings speed in covering first spoiled it.

Ako played for Tsunehiro perfectly in the 6th. He played over in right center and caught a terrific line drive by moving over only a few feet. Had he played several feet nearer the foul line, the drive would have been good for at least three bases.

Eighteen innings pitched, no runs, five hits, six passes, seventeen strikeouts. Rather a good record for Makee's only pitcher when you consider that the feat was pulled off against Lihue and McBryde, both tough nuts to crack.

Henry Aki, one of the most loyal supporters of the Makees, was the host at dinner to the Makee team on Friday evening at Yuen Kee Cafe to celebrate the team's victory over Lihue. All the players were there and we must admit that when it comes to eating, the other teams will have to travel at high speed to equal our record.

H. Walters promised another dinner to the boys if McBryde was shut out and made good with a swell Chinese chop-suey dinner on Sunday evening. He declared that if the boys could keep it up and shut out their opponents whenever a crucial game is played, the money for the dinner should be considered well spent.

Nicholas Hoopli, who played third base for the Makees last year and who had been spending his vacation in Honolulu will return this week and will probably take part in the Grove Farm game this Sunday.

GAMES NEXT SUNDAY

Makee vs. Grove Farm
Can the Farmers stop the champs? Every team in the league is pulling for them to keep up their winning streak at the expense of the Makee club, but the question is, can they do it. Both teams are going great guns but the champs have the advantage of better pitching. Jonah has pitched two wonderful games and both against Makee's toughest problems, but can he keep it up? Next Sunday would be a bad day to slump as the Farmers are out for re-

Gerbaio is an in and out and cannot be depended upon. If he is right he will give the champions a merry battle, but if he is not game life the first meeting of these clubs can be expected.

Makaweli vs. Koloa

Makaweli and Koloa will fight it for the cellar championship next Sunday. The present cellar champions have a chance to climb out of their lowly position by defeating Koloa, Robello and Wramp will probably be the opposing twirlers and with so much at stake there is no doubt that it will be a battle.

WILLIAM J. YEAGER JR. SOUGHT ON KAUAI

The Garden Island is in receipt of a letter from Mrs. Peter E. Yeager, 207 1-2 North 3rd street, Reading, Pennsylvania, who is looking for her lost son, William J. Yeager Jr. Mrs. Yeager is very anxious to locate her son from whom she has not heard in several years and she believes that someone on the Garden Island may be able to help her do so.

Mr. Yeager, it is said, was married several years ago to a Kauai girl. Since that time he was a petty officer in charge of recruiting for the United States Army at Reno, Nevada. More than this his mother does not tell us. The name of the Kauai girl whom he married is withheld. Anyone who can give any information as to the whereabouts of this man or his wife should write directly to his mother, or to Secretary J. E. Stone, Executive Building, Honolulu, T. H.

A FISH STORY

Two members of the Yale swimming team who are visiting on Kauai went fishing at Hanalei last Sunday and were unusually successful in their catch. It is reported that these speed men simply outswam the fish they saw and grabbed them by the gills. That is the best fish story of the season.

ROADS IN KAWAIHAU BEGIN TO IMPROVE

"A new broom sweeps clean," and Supervisor Fred Mendez of the Kawaihau district is certainly living up to the old proverb. The roads in his district have taken on a new appearance since Fred has gone into office.

Due to the fact that the county has no asphaltum on hand, it was impossible to do any repairing to the roads, so Jimmy Werner put the men to cleaning the brush away alongside the roads. This has helped the visibility at several bad turns, especially the sharp turn in Moolawa gulch. This turn was very dangerous before the brush was cut away as the road is narrow and the curve very sharp. A driver either going up or down the hill could not tell if a car was coming in the opposite direction and with the high percentage of left-hand drivers that there are on Kauai it is not surprising that there has not been a serious accident at this turn. Now all the danger has been removed, as the brush has been cut back for quite a distance and one can see quite a way in either direction.

All the materials for repairing the roads have now arrived and Fred intends to start a force of men to repairing at once. There are several bad spots in the roads at Anahola and Moolawa and persons who travel back and forth from Kilauea will be more than pleased when this stretch of road is put in good condition once more.

AFTER RUDYARD KIPLING

When the husband faces helpmeet every morning in debate, And they're trying to explain to her why he was out late, There is never any question that his argument will fail, For the female of the species can talk longer than the male.

When the argument is hottest and they get down to brass tacks, And they land each other's relatives a lot of pugent whacks, You would think that her's were angels and that his should be in jail, For the female of the species can think faster than the male.

When they're whacking up the boogie that he's earned thru-out the week And deciding how to spend it, he's a pretty helpless geek; It is sad for him to look at his percentage of the kale, For the female of the species can grab quicker than the male.

When they do their weekly shopping and they linger 'round the store, The husband thinks that living is a most decided bore; She can take a fifty-cent piece and get drygoods by the bale, For the female of the species can buy cheaper than the male.

Dangerous Days.

out from Brest, a fatherly officer went down into the hold to inquire into the welfare of his colored charges.

"Well, Sam, he enquired of one buck who was sitting bolt upright on the side of his bunk, "been seasick yet?"

"Nossuh, not zackly seasick, but Ah sho am sleepy."

"Why don't you lie down, then? There's nothing to do."

"Nossuh, kain't lay down. Ef Ah lays down Ah'll jest start yawning, and Ah sittin'ly am pow'ful scared there."—Pittsburg Chronicle-Telegram
